This workshop will take place at Sportime Kings Park, 275 Old Indian Head Road, Kings Park, NY 11754. (For directions click: http://www.ariastennis.com/directions/directions_stkp.html).

Please note: We will need a minimum of attendees in order to conduct this workshop.

You will receive confirmation whether the workshop is on schedule or not by Thursday February 25, 2010.

In the event of cancellation due to low registration, you will receive a refund of your registration fee.

This USTA High Performance workshop is the first of series planned by the USTA Suffolk County District. The theme is "Training for USTA Tournaments".

Players will experience topics covered on and off court, coach supervised match play, and an equipment seminar conducted by Jim Donnelly, owner of Grand Slam Tennis, USTA Long Island Retailer of the Year.

A parents seminar will be held for 30 minutes after match play starts in the last hour. Workshop will provide you with the latest information to get kids playing tennis the fast fun way.

Materials will be distributed for players and parents to keep.
